Privacy Policy

Introduction

Your privacy is important to us. ACEC WI respects the privacy of our members and visitors to our website. We use your contact information primarily for our print and email communication. We will not sell your information to a third party and will not give your information to a third party for permanent use. At our discretion, we may share our mailing list with partners for a one-time use if we deem it useful or beneficial to our membership.

Information We Gather

Information you give us. We receive and store information you provide via our website, registering for an event or applying for membership.

Our website logs visitors using cookies and uses Google Analytics for statistical tracking, including number of hits, page views and time on the site. Information is for internal use only.

Our event registration system is secure and does not store credit card information. ACEC WI is compliant with the Payment Card Industry (PCI) Data Security Standards. Do not send credit card information via email as it is not secure.

Email Communications

ACEC WI is aware of the high volume of emails members receive each day and attempts to limit the number of emails sent. However, email is a necessary part of our communications. At any time, you may subscribe to or unsubscribe from blast email messages. To change your preferences, contact ACEC WI at 608-257-9223 or acecwi@acecwi.org.

Online Membership Directory

An electronic membership directory is available at www.acecwi.org. The public may search our directory for firm mailing address, phone number, website and firm description. ACEC WI members, when logged into the site, may search for the designated key contact at each member and affiliate firms. The key contact search results include email addresses.

External Links

The ACEC WI website and other electronic communication includes links to external websites. These links do not fall under the www.acecwi.org domain. ACEC WI is not responsible for the privacy practices or content of external links.

Policy Revisions

ACEC WI reserves the right to change this policy. The current policy will be posted at www.acecwi.org. Contact ACEC WI with any questions regarding this policy.
